Dr. Paul A. Young, Superintendent-Principal of York, is shown at the center standing in front of the entrance to the new library-gym wing. The surrounding views are suggestive of the complex routine that might come in a typical day. Clockwise from upper left: Observing a first-aid demonstration in Mr. Stefani's health class; with Mr. Michelsen; with Mrs. Grass and Mr. Monts; with Mr. Birks; bottom pictures show conferences with Mr. Fischer, Mr. Mueller, Mr. Swenson, and Miss Krantz; and at left, with Mr. Hosteland.

York Board Working Overtime to Lay Plans for Future

Mr. Mils I. Hersey

Mr. Lewis N. McFarland

This year has been a busy one for York's Board of Education. In determining the best way to meet the demands of ever-increasing enrollment the board set up the York Study Project, in which more than two hundred laymen, teachers, school administrators, and members of the district's board of education are working together to examine the problem thoroughly and arrive at a recommended solution. A proposal will in turn the commended solution to be proposal will be turn the district.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS, Sitting: Carl Swanson, Head Usher: Standing: Diana Kramp, Secretary; Dick Oeler, President: and Dick Aust, Vice President

Saniors elected to the society in their junior year comprise the active chapter of this organization. Their duties include ushering at the musical events and serving as guides at various meetings held at the school.

One of the traditions of National Honor Society is to have its members from all over the country compete for scholarships. This year twenty-three York members entered in this competition

Miss Stoaks, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Witherspoon were this year's capable advisors. Each May the new members are welcomed with an impressive induction ceremony.

QUILL AND SCROLL OFFICERS Mary Hedge, President, Donne Jay Secretary; John Bruhe, Treasurer; and Judy Hesier, Vice President

Quill and Scroll is an international society which honors students who have done outstanding work in the field of journalism

The requirements for membership are that a candidate be a junior or senior in the upper third of his class, who is elected from either the York-Hi or Y's Tales staff. Candidates from the York-Hi must have published 45 inches of material in the paper. Typists from the York-Hi must have contributed 45 hours of work. A Y's Tales staff member is eligible if he is editor, business manager, head photographer, or a committee chairman; senior staff members may earn recommendation if they have done outstanding work.

The candidates for Quill and Scroll must also have the recommendation of their sponsor. Those who have made considerable contributions to the publications, but who do not meet the requirements are made honorary members

Quill and Scroll's faculty sponsor is Miss Eleanor Davis.

Duke's First Season in New Gym Disappointing

The year's York Dukes, led ably by Mr. Koch and Mr. Larson, finished a disappointing season in eventh place. The team finished with a 4 win and 10 loss in the tinal analysis, however, it was found that with a few breaks the record could easily have been 7 and 7. This is shown in a loss to Riverside-Brookfield n overtime in the second round of play, to Glenbard by two points, and to where are by two. The record also showed great improvement toward the f the season. Some of this was due to the play of sophomore center Wayne Millies, who was brought up to the varsity after a very sec. essful season on the frosh-soph squad.

Dukes Are Repeat Winners at E. Rockford Relay

Relay Jeam Captures State Titles

The Oak Park Relays was the second meet of the indoor season. Here the Dukes hed for fourth place with Proviso. Stumbaugh and Cada finished second and third in the pole vault. The mile relay team finished second behind Oak Park.

York finished third in the Class A division of the Palatine Relays. First place winners were Etherton, 100-yard dash: and the mile relay team of Slumenshein, Bright, Ether Ion, and Miller. Points were also won in the 400-yard low hurdle shuttle relay and the pole vault

The big event of the season was the winning of the East Rockford Relays. York finished second in the 360-yard high hurdle shuttle relay, 100-yard dash, varsity medley relay, and shot put. In the other events they finished first and third in the DuPage County Meet. York finished first. First place winners were the mile relay team: Etherton, 100-yard dash and 440-yard dash; Cartwright, 180-yard low hurdles; Rubietta, shot put: and McCallister, high jump.

Baseball Jeam Gets Added Drive

York's baseball team, for the third consecutive year inished second in the tough West Suburban Conference. In their first year of play on the new diamond, the team won eleven and lost three. A though the rugged Maine nine copped the title, York, in tying Downers Grove for second place did very well.

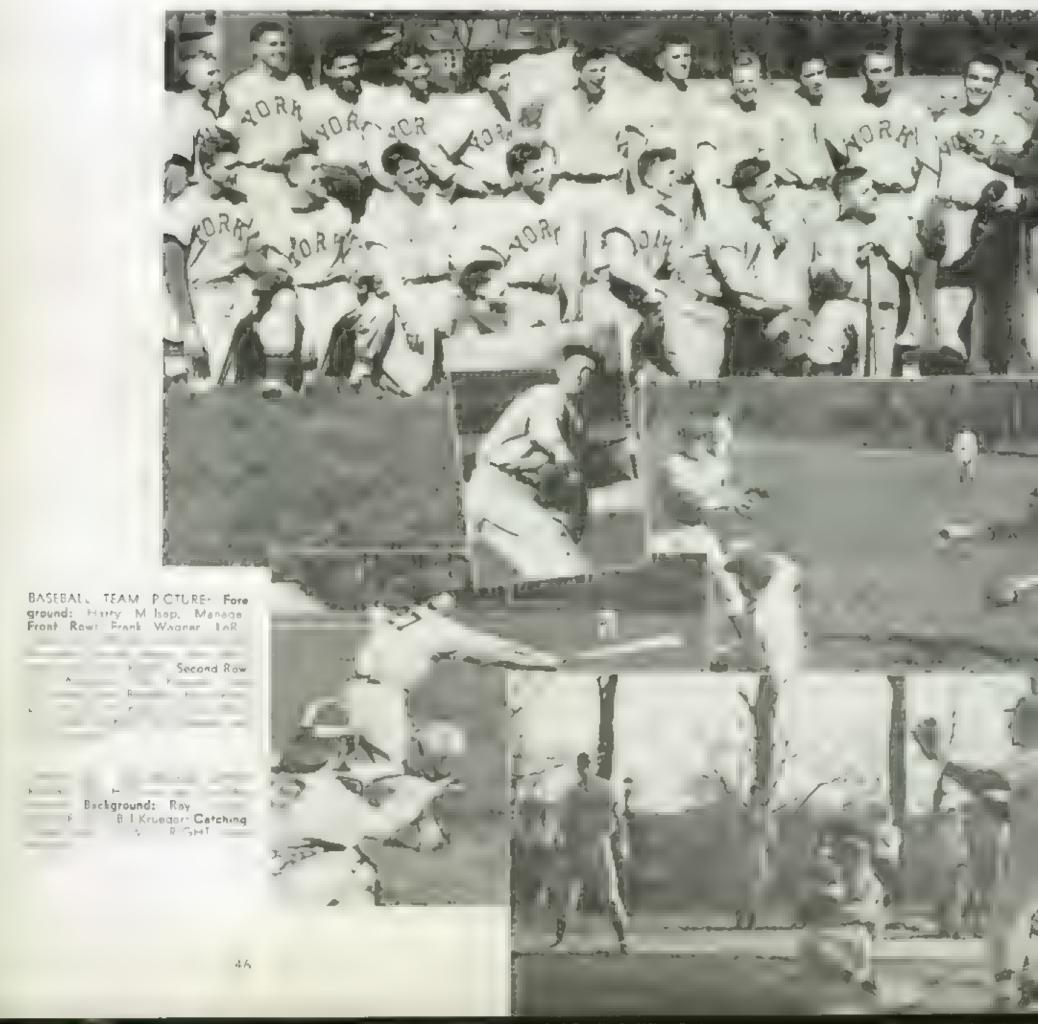

Led by the capable pitching of Bob Stuenkel and the blazing bat of Dick Oeler, the Dukes proved themselves worthy of all apponents. Perhaps one of their most gratifying victories was the one over the champion Blue Demons. Jack Wilson's last-inning, bases loaded triple gave the Dukes the tying and winning runs

The graduating lettermen were John Benedict and Bob Stuenkel, pitcher: Jack Wilson catcher: Bill Krueger, first base; Marvin Reese, left field; and Don Anderson, second base

The only large gaps to be filled are those of pitcher and catcher, as there are ample re serves from last year's team to fill in the other positions. Dick Oeler, last year's right fielder, will probably be the starting pitcher, with Leroy Lukes also seeing plenty of action. Bob Ottoman's the best prospect for catcher, provided the knee injury which eliminated him from compet tion last year does not reappear.

The returning lettermen, who will form the nucleus of the team, are Bob Hoffman Low Oeler, Don Schloemer, Bill Zersen, and Frank Wagner. These boys, all of whom are seniors, have each won two letters in basebal
